There are eight forms of participation/attendance:

On-campus eventsEvents offered online*Recorded events

Live and on-campus
(not recorded):

The class takes place on-campus only.
Attendance is recommended.

Live and on-campus & digitally live (not recorded):

The class takes place on-campus and digitally (hybrid). The on-campus class will be streamed via Zoom so that students can participate on-campus or via Zoom at the time of the class. In addition, there may be material (texts, videos, etc.) that needs to be prepared or homework to be done. Attendance at the live meetings (on-campus or digitally) is recommended.

Digitally live (not recorded):

The class takes place digitally and synchronized only, e.g. via Zoom sessions. In addition, there may be material (texts, videos, etc.) that needs to be prepared or homework to be done. Attendance at the digital live meetings is recommended.

Digitally recorded:

The class takes place in the form of digital recordings/videos only, which can be watched at any time. In addition, there may be material (texts, videos, etc.) that needs to be prepared or homework to be done. Presence at fixed times is not necessary/possible.

Digitally live & recorded:

The class takes place digitally only. The synchronized formats (e.g. Zoom sessions) will be recorded and are made available afterwards to be watched at any time. Attendance in the digital live session is recommended, but not compulsory.

Recording session without presence:

Learning videos are recorded for the students in the lecture hall. If you see this posted somewhere, please do not disturb. You may also encounter this on a lecture hall door in German, saying:
"Aufzeichnung ohne Präsenz. Bitte nicht stören."

On-campus & digitally live - recorded:

The class takes place on-campus and digitally (hybrid). The on-campus class will be recorded and is made available afterwards to be watched at any time. Attendance in the live session (digitally or on-campus) is recommended, but not compulsory for successful completion of the course.
